

Tasmanian Energy Forum (TEF)

Thursday, 1st of March, 2012, Hobart

Hotel Grand Chancellor, 1 Davey Street, Hobart

Tasmanian electricity prices have become a hot topic. Tasmanian businesses and households are facing rising energy bills and are concerned about the impacts on them. Are further price increases inevitable? What can be done about them? What is the price outlook and why? What can and should Governments do to deal with the crisis that rising energy prices have become? What do the decision-makers and sector's leaders think? What can energy customers do to deal with these issues? Does gas offer some solutions? These are some of the issues you will hear about in this 1-day seminar that will provide a comprehensive range of information and expert views on Tasmanian energy for users and others interested in electricity and gas in Tasmania. It will bring together expert, independent and informed analysis, and include local and national speakers.

Bringing together Tasmanian energy users, the Tasmanian energy industry and other stakeholders in an intensive day focused on Tasmanian energy issues. DON'T MISS IT!
